

HULT PRIZE

Leading a Diverse Generation To Change The World

The injustice of the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis has caused anger and grief around the world and within the Hult community. As an #impact centered organization, we condemn racism and join in the call for justice—the continual reoccurrence of these tragedies cannot be tolerated. We stand in solidarity with the Black community, the Black Lives Matter movement, and all communities fighting against racial injustice around the world.

We have heard how painful this moment in history has been for many of our participants, alumni, staff, and expert community around the world and we want you to know that we stand shoulder to shoulder with you in this struggle.

Given our core belief and ethos of #TogetherWeAreStronger, we know that only when every voice is heard can equality be achieved. This moment in history will be remembered and here at the Hult Prize and throughout our global community we are taking the opportunity to pause and look inward. We are actively engaging members of our community who are or have been victims of racism, discrimination, and injustice and opening a forum to listen, discuss, and act.

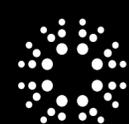

Over the next few weeks we will be hosting a series of listening and feedback forums. Invitations will be sent over the coming days and are open to any member of our community that would like to participate. As a global leader in open innovation and impact on college and university campuses around the world, these forums will provide all of us a chance to receive feedback and brainstorm ideas about ways we can support and lead action for change and #impact that can lead to an equitable world for all.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment and support of helping us lead a generation to change the world.
